Lexar® DRAM—Notebook

When it comes to notebook performance, Lexar DRAM goes the distance.

Your notebook takes you places—at work or at play, at home or in the office. Don't let a slow system slow you down—upgrade your memory with Lexar DRAM. Lexar, a name synonymous with quality flash products, now offers DRAM products specifically designed for notebook systems. A simple memory upgrade can make your notebook an even better mobile solution.

Reliable and affordable.

A memory upgrade is often the most inexpensive way to increase overall system performance. Lexar DRAM is rigorously tested, premium-quality, and comes from a division of one of the largest DRAM manufacturers in the world. It also delivers the reliability and speeds you're looking for—at a very affordable price. And it's easy to install yourself, saving you time and money.

The name you can trust.

Lexar DRAM gives you the inside track on notebook performance. Price-competitive, high-quality, and reliable, it's also backed by a limited lifetime warranty and outstanding service and support. Available in DDR, DDR2 and DDR3.
